

ENFORCEMENT (CONTEMPT) of judgments

After a divorce, sometimes one party or the other is unable or unwilling to comply with the terms of the divorce agreement or decree. In those situations there are often several ways to enforce compliance with the terms of the court order. If you are not receiving payments or other benefits you expected to receive or if you find yourself unable to comply with a court order, contact our office to determine the best way to protect your rights.

The Law Office of Douglas A. Hill, PC
305 Lawrence St. Marietta, GA 30060 770-429-8300